

~~SECRET~~
RAILROADS

Retain introduction and requirements with the following exceptions:

1. Replace (a) with "Fragmentary and/or aggregative traffic and operational data of the following types: passenger and net and/or gross ton-kilometers (by commodity); passengers and tons originated (by commodity); daily or yearly carloadings (by commodity); average length of haul (by commodity); freight car turnaround time; average net load per car (by commodity); average net load per train; daily kilometers performed by locomotives."
2. Insert "Financial data including assets, investments, costs and rates. Freight and passenger rates may be available to the public."
3. Insert "Comparison of railroad system with that of other countries (preferably European) with regard to condition of equipment, speed of operation, methods of operation, efficiency of operation, etc."

ROADS

Retain introduction and include following requirements:

1. Total number of vehicles by type, capacity, and administrative control. Percent of total in service.
2. Fragmentary and/or aggregative traffic and operational data of the following types: passenger and ton-kilometers (by commodity); passenger and tons carried (by commodity); average length of haul; average daily kilometers performed by truck; average operable days per truck per year.
3. Financial data including assets, investments, costs and rates. Freight and passenger rates may be available to the public.
4. Indication of new road construction and/or improvements being made on important routes.

SEA PORTS

Retain requirements.